1 Introduction

This is the introduction to my first document created in LaTeX.

1.1 A Subsection

Here's some more text under a subsection.

This is a new paragraph in your document. You can write your text here and when you want to start a new paragraph, just add another \paragraph command.

If you want to include an image, use the following syntax:

2 Conclusion

This is the conclusion of my document.
